Drawing on what made it successful, the new Lash Moi salon promises to be the place where luxury, pampering, and style flourish. The co-owner sisters, Julie Nguyen and Emilie Bjornson calling it; "the ultimate oasis for your lash and skin care needs. We were very involved with the layout and décor. It is important for us to offer clients a relaxing yet posh atmosphere. It is our mission to ensure every client has a memorable experience."

Lash Moi boasts of their unmatched reputation for being one of the first salons in Washington, DC's metropolitan area to specialize in semi-permanent eyelash extensions. All of the stylists are Xtreme Lash® certified and take pride in utilizing quality products and innovative techniques. Safe and healthy eyelash extensions are provided and natural lashes are always preserved. In addition to specializing in eyelash extensions the boutique will also offer an array of specialty services including eyelash accents, eyelash maintenance, waxing and cosmetic tattoos.

Join the Lash Moi team as they showcase their expertise at their exclusive open house in the new location: 1166 MD Rt 3 Gambrills, MD 21054, Sunday, September 22, 2013, 12p-6p.

The all new Lash Moi experience promises to be something old and new clients will want to add to their monthly budget. According to the sisters Julie and Emilie: "We want everyone to have Eyes that Kiss."
